

Michael Liu

*North America Regional Manager
BYD Energy Storage*

Michael Liu is the North America Regional manager for BYD Energy Storage Business. He joined BYD in 2012, and is now responsible for the North American market and business development for Energy Storage in all market sectors, including micro-grid, frequency regulation, and load shiftings. Prior to BYD, Michael was a Building Energy Efficiency consultant working under Southern California Edison's Energy Efficiency program. Michael graduated from Purdue University with a Master's degree in Engineering, with specialization in Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy.